INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--5,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Elias Elliott, the father of our subject, was born on Albemarle Sound, in North Carolina, January 12, 1803, received his literary education in the common schools and in his home received the training of the Society of Friends, of which he became a member. When a young man he went to Guilford County, North Carolina, and in that locality purchased and managed a farm. He was married there to Martha Sanders, a native of that County and a daughter of David and Sarah (Brazelton) Sanders. Her father was a son of Hezekiah and Martha (Elmore) Sanders, the latter of Cherokee descent. Her father was John Elmore, who married An-nah-wah-kah, an Indian maiden of the Cherokee Nation, whose English name was Sarah-on-the-Holston-River. John Elmore and his Indian wife became the parents of the following named: Sarah, who married Jesse Henly and died in Randolph County, North Carolina, in 1813; Martha, who became the wife of Hezekiah Sanders and died in Guilford County, same state, in 1818; Thomas, who married Nancy Sanders and died in Jefferson County, Tennessee, in 1822; Cescella, who became the wife of Robert Johnson and died in Guilford County, in 1829; Mary, who became the wife of Joel Sanders, and died in Stokes County, North Carolina, in 1828; and John, who died in Stokes County, unmarried. These children were reared in the faith of the Society of Friends. Martha (Elmore) Sanders was a pioneer physician in North Carolina and practiced the healing art among her neighbors and the people of the community, being renowned for her skill. She probably gained a knowledge of Indian remedies and medicinal herbs from her mother, who had lived among the Indians.

The foregoing is taken from the life of William S. Elliott in a History of Cass, Miami, Howard and Tipton Counties, Indiana, in Volumn No. 2, on pages 756 and 757.

Rec. AUG 17 1907
No. 28442

Robert J. Johnson being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 48 years of age and live in Gilmer Co., Ga. I claim my Indian descent through my mother; my father is white. My mother claimed 1/4 Cherokee. My mother's mother claimed to be Indian. All of my other grandparents were white people. My mother raised in N. C., but I don't know where she was born. My grandmother's maiden name was Toney or Tonie. Don't know where she was born. My mother never lived with the Indians that I know of. Don't know whether her mother did or not. My mother nor grandmother were never on any roll that I know of. I am recognized as a white man with some Indian blood. William Jones (20160) is a cousin of mine on my mother's side. My mother and his father were brother and sister. He claims through his father and no other source.

Geo. K. Tanner being first duly sworn in behalf of Robert J. Johnson, deposes and says:

That I am 71 years of age and live in Fannin Co., Ga. I was acquainted with the mother of applicant. I got acquainted with her between ~~1844~~ 1845 and 1850. The mother of applicant and their parents moved to this county at that time. There were no Indians here then that I know of at that time. His mother claimed to be 1/2 Cherokee. Her grandmother was a full Indian. Her name was Toney; I didn't know her first name. Wm. Jones was a white man. I never heard of any of them being on any roll or receiving any money from the government. About all I know is that this old Mrs. Toney claimed to be an Indian; she couldn't talk anything but Indian. Before Mrs. Toney was married she was a Tuckahoe. I think she died in 1849 or 1850. They came from Kentucky to Georgia. Don't know whether they were born and raised in Ky. or not.

SHOOTING COMPARISON

App. No. 28402

May 21, 1908.

Wm. Johnson,
Raleighville, N.C.

Sir:-

Relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, kindly state why the names of your parents and other ancestors through whom you claim Cherokee descent and who were living in 1835 and 1861, do not appear on the Cherokee rolls of those dates.

Is your grand mother Jenkins the only ancestor through whom you claim Indian descent?

Were you or either of your parents ever held as a slave? If so, state whether you or they were owned by white people or Indians.

Give the names of your ancestors who ever lived with any tribe of Indians, also the name of the tribe, and state whether when you lived with such tribe, as in the county or state where they lived, they ever went to court, if any, they had in the United States.

Very respectfully,

Special Agent in Charge.

Julia Ann Cundiff,

R.F.D. No. 1,

Richland, Missouri.

Madam:-

Replying to your letter of August 2, 1907, you are advised that there are no lands to be allotted in connection with the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees.

You are further advised that the applications have not been taken up for final consideration, as the Court in its order of April 29, 1907, a copy of which is herewith inclosed, has extended the time for the filing of applications to August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them, or to state how much each successful claimant will receive.

As there are already over 53,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner

COURT OF CLAIMS.

State of Missouri (ss Exceptions of Julia Ann Cundiff to report of County Camden) Special Commissioner Guion Miller.
Application No, 28463.
Post Office Richland Missouri.

On this the ____ day of August 1909 personally appeared before me a, Notary Public in and for said County and State Julia Ann Cundiff who after first being duly sworn on her oath deposes and says that she is 36 years old and a resident of Camden County Missouri, and that she has made application to participate in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims of May 28th, 1906, and that said application was rejected by said Special Commissioner without giving any reasons therefor.

Affiant states that she is a daughter of Eli Miller and a direct decendant of Eastern Cherokees, that her father is one fourth blood Cherokee and that her grand ~~father~~ mother Polly Love was one half blood Cherokee and that her great grand father was Jim Love who was one half blood Cherokee, and her great grand mother Sallie Love was a full blood Cherokee, and they were all on the Cherokee roll of 1835. Affiant states that her grand mother Polly Miller -ne- Polly Love was about 23 years old in 1835 when the Cherokee roll was made.

Affiant believes that the records at Washington City will show that her grand parents were on the Esatern Cherokee roll, and for that reason she excepts to the report of Special Commissioner Guion Miller to the Court of Claims and believes that she has a right to participate in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims of May 28th, 1906.

App. No. 28487

May 21, 1906.

Henry Hawkins,
Ft. Silvan, Okla.

Sir:-

Relative to your application for a share in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, I beg to state that same is somewhat incomplete and would request that you furnish this office with the names of your grand-parents on the side through which you claim your Indian descent, together with those of their children.

Do you claim any Indian descent whatever through your mother? If so, did she ever go by the name of Mariah Hawkins?

Did either of your parents ever participate in any Old Settler payment? If so, state when and where. Have you been enrolled by the Dawes Commission? If so, state the number of your enrollment and indicate on what roll your name appears.

Were you or either of your parents ever held as a slave? If so, state whether you or they were owned by white people or Indians.

Give the names of your ancestors who ever lived with any tribe of Indians, also the name of the tribe, and state the time when each lived with such tribe, naming the county and state where they lived, and that part, if any, they took in the tribal councils.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Hon. Guion Miller,
Washington D.C.

Dear Sir:

In reply to yours of May 21 addressed to Henry Hawkins, relative to his application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, App. No. 28487, I beg to submit the following:

The names of his grand-parents are unknown, they both having died back in the old nation and his mother whose name was Mariah Jones was, so far as he can tell, their only child.

He claims his Indian descent through his mother who after marrying Hawkins was known as Mariah Hawkins.

Neither of his parents ever participated in any Old Settler payment. He is enrolled by the Daws Commission as No. 17648 on the Cherokee Indian Roll.

Neither he nor his parents were ever held as slaves. His mother was a Cherokee Indian and lived with that tribe up to the time of her death which occurred some eight or nine years ago.

I believe that I have answered all of your questions as fully as possible from the information at hand. If any thing further is desired kindly let me know.

Yours respectfully,

Earl H. Ortmann

Henry Hawkins being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am 51 years of age. I was born in Tahlequah District. My Indian blood comes through my mother. I got none through my father. My mother was named Mariah Jones and she married Hawkins. I am the only child. I don't know when my parents were married. My mother had no Indian name that I know of. My mother lived in Tahlequah District before I was born. I don't know of any brothers that my mother had, nor sisters either. I do not know when my mother came out here. I suppose they came in about 1833. My mother was an Emigrant. An-ni-ke Jones was the name of my grandmother. Her husband was named Aborn or Abram Jones. My grandparents never came West. I think they died before my mother lost the East. I don't know any of the brothers and sisters of either of my grandparents. My mother has been dead about 13 years. I did not get any of the Old Settler money. I did not any. I wasn't here at the time of the strip money, but I got the broad money. I got land from the Dawes commission and my children all got land. Mariah Hawkins or Jones was never known by any other name that I ever heard. I don't know whether my mother drew money in 1851 or not. I have never associated with any other tribe of Indians than the Cherokees. (Witness does not know anything of his ancestors).

Jennie Blackburn,

Crumpler, N. C.

Sir:

On May 31st, 1908 a letter was sent you from this office requesting certain information in regard to the application for minors which you have filed in this office. No reply has been received to that letter, and you are therefore requested to furnish the following information at once, otherwise the claim of these children will be rejected. The information required is: Do these minors claim through Ned Sizemore? If they do claim through Ned Sizemore, do they claim through any other source, if so, set out the name and name of the ancestors of these minors ever held as slaves? Were none of their ancestors ever enrolled? Give any other information obtainable tending to substantiate their right to share in this fund.

Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Madam:-

Relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, kindly state by the names of your parents and other ancestors through whom you claim Cherokee descent and who were living in 1835 and 1840, do not appear on the Cherokee rolls of those dates.

Do you claim any Indian descent whatever through your mother? Were either of your parents or any of your ancestors ever held as a slave? If so, state whether they were owned by white people or Indians.

Give the names of your ancestors who ever lived with any tribe of Indians, also the name of the tribe and state the time when each lived with such tribe, naming the county and state where they lived, and what part, if any, they took in the tribal councils.

has some Indian blood through her father, Andy Coval. I have known him about 12 or 14 years. I knew Andy Coval about 18 or 20 years ago when he was living in McMinn Co.

I never talked with him about being an Indian. It is simply from what she has said to me that I know about her being an Indian. She did not know herself who her grandparents were.

Richard Wallas was her husband. He was about 60 years old, when he died about 8 years ago. He claimed about being

He said he was Indian and could not help it. He said he reckoned he was a halfbreed and belonged to the Cherokee tribe. His mother was Sallie Wallas, his father was Camp-

Relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, kindly state by your name does not appear on the Cherokee roll of 1851, and by those of your parents and other ancestors through whom you claim Cherokee descent and who were living in 1755 and 1851, do not appear on the Cherokee rolls of those dates.

Do you claim any Indian descent through your father? Kindly furnish me the names of your grandparents on the side through which you claim, together with those of their children.

Have you or any of your children been enrolled by the Census Department? If so, give your number and name and indicate on what rolls your name appears.

How was your father's name on the rolls? Did you or either of your parents ever contribute to the fund? Were you ever in the military service of the United States, and if so were you paid, and if so how was it paid.

Do you claim to have been in the military service of the United States, and if so, in what branch of the service, and in what capacity, and for what length of time, and in what part of the world, and in what councils.

Your respectful
signature,

Thos. J. Rawls being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 63 years of age and live in Montgomery Co., Ark. I claim my Indian descent through my mother; my father was a white man. My wife is a white woman. I don't know which grandparent claimed the Indian. My grandparents' name was Thogmartin. Don't know when my mother was born. She was about 55 years old when she died and that was in 1848. I think my mother was born in Miss. She came to Montgomery Co., Ark. and died there. My mother never lived with the Indians that I ever heard of. I never lived with the Indians myself. I never was on any Indian roll but don't know whether my mother was or not. My mother had a brother named Lewis. I nor none of my folks never applied to the Dawes Commission. I am recognized as a white man with some Indian blood. If my mother ever received anything from the government, I never heard of it. She never had any Indian name that I know of. I suppose she was living in Miss. in 1835.

Appl. #28549

Martha L. Bass being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is Martha L. Bass. I live at Fackler, Ala. I was born in 1882 in Cock Co. Tenn. I claim through my mother and her mother. My mother was born in 1860. She was born in Washington Co., N. C. My grandmother's maiden name was Phoebe White. She came from Washington Co., N. V. My mother and her mother were recognized as white people. I never heard of them living with the Indian tribe, only they lived in the country where the Indians lived (N.C.) I have always been taught that I had Cherokee Indian blood in me. I don't know the name of my Indian ancestor where I get my Indian blood. I know my mother never got any money or land from the Govt. on account of her Indian blood, and I don't think my grandmother did. I think the name of my grandmother's father was John White, her mother's name was Bell before she was married. My grandmother had a half brother by the name of Abe White. I never heard of my ancestors being enrolled with the Indians. I never heard of my mother or grandmother speak of a treaty with the Indians in 1835. I have heard my grandmother talk about being right in the country in N. C. where the Indians were.
